

NEWS RELEASE

Public Information Office, 400 NW 2 Ave., Room 220, Miami, Florida 33128
(305) 603-6420

MIAMI POLICE DEPARTMENT

Date: September 9, 2015

Subject: TERROISM AWARENESS CONFERENCE

The Miami Police Department's Office of Emergency Management and Homeland Security will be hosting the Terrorism Awareness Conference on September 11, 2015.

This year, FBI Special Agents, Rick Hernandez and David Nuñez will conduct a briefing on ISIS and ISIL and the potential threats to our community. Mr. Sergio Lopez and Ms. Danielle Corbett from the FAA will conduct a briefing on drones.

The presentation will provide key decisions makers and local law enforcement on what can be done in order to protect infrastructures.

With the assistance from the private sector, the Miami Police Department will be unveiling an updated Public Service Announcement (PSA) "See Something, Say Something".

When: September 11, 2015

Where: Miami Police College
400 N.W. 2 Avenue
Miami, Florida 33128

Time: 10:00 A.M.

Parking is available with a parking permit at Parking Lot #13 (NW 3 Ave & 3th Street - under I95).

Please RSVP to Officer Marcos T. Perez marcos.perez@miami-police.org, (305)603-6172 or (786)348-5886.

Prepared by: Ofc. Kenia Fallat

Reviewed by: Major D. Moss

Case: N/A

Transmittal Date & Time September 9, 2015

Rodolfo Llanes, Chief of Police