2023 MIAMI MARATHON

The 2023 Miami Marathon will begin at 5:55 a.m. on Sunday, January 29th, 2023, with over 19,000 participants from all over the world who will run through the streets of Miami starting at the Miami-Dade Arena, over the MacArthur Causeway to Ocean Drive, through the art district, and through Coconut Grove.

ROAD CLOSURES

Streets closures will commence at 5:00 a.m. and streets shall reopen by 2:00 p.m.

- Friday, January 27th, at 10:00 a.m.: Biscayne Boulevard between S.E. 2nd Street and N.E. 2nd Street will be partially closed to allow the implementation of the finish line. The northbound lanes of the boulevard will be closed, implementing a counter flow. All traffic entering Biscayne Boulevard at Chopin Plaza will be re-routed to the southbound lanes at S.E. 1st Street until N.E. 2nd Street where the counter-flow will return traffic patterns to normal.
- Saturday, January 28th, at 8:00 a.m.: All northbound traffic entering Biscayne Boulevard at Chopin Plaza will be re-routed westbound on S.E. 2nd Street. Southbound traffic on Biscayne Boulevard will be detoured at N.E. 1st Street and re-routed west. This will close the Boulevard north and south from N.E. 1st Street to S.E. 1st Street.
- Sunday, January 29th, at 5:00 a.m.: Road closures for the event will begin city wide and will re-open at approximately 11:00 a.m. following the tail of the race. Shortly after the last participant finishes the race, all road closures except for Biscayne Boulevard counter-flow will re-open. The Biscayne Boulevard counter-flow is estimated to be opened at approximately 5:00 p.m.
