Subject:

BURGLAR STRIKES TWICE

Miami Police are investigating two burglaries which occurred on two separate days at the same residence.

On June 25, 2020, at approximately 6:17 a.m., and on June 29, 2020, at approximately 1:55 p.m., an unknown subject was captured on surveillance footage leaving the victim's property located at 1020 N.W. 63 Street with miscellaneous items in hand.

Further investigation revealed that the unknown subject stole tools and electronics, all including weed eaters, a generator and a flat screen TV totaling approximately $2,600.

Detectives are actively investigating this case and need assistance in identifying the subject who is believed to be the same offender in both incidents.

Detectives are looking for:

Suspect: Slim built male. On June 25, 2020, the subject was last seen wearing a short sleeve shirt with knee length shorts and dark shoes. On June 29, 2020, the subject was last seen wearing a tan button up shirt, tan pants with red shoes, a white bandana and a light colored hat.
