BURGLAR CAUGHT ON CAMERA

City of Miami Police Detectives are investigating a burglary that occurred at 922 N.W 8 Street Road on Saturday, July 4, 2020, at approximately 6:15 a.m.

According to investigators, officers responded to a call of a burglary at 922 N.W 8 Street Road. Officers met with the victim/owner who called to report that an unknown subject gained access to his gated, locked and secured property. Video surveillance captured a male leaving the premises of the victim's home, pushing what appeared to be a pressure cleaner.

The victim also reported that his black 2004 Toyota Tacoma was stolen from his yard, however it was not captured on camera.

Detectives have been actively investigating and have since exhausted leads regarding this case. Detectives are requesting the community's assistance in identifying the subject, as well as locating the victim's vehicle.

Description:

Subject: Black male. Last seen wearing what appeared to have been a white and black striped polo shirt, khaki colored shorts with black shoes.
