Subject: Advocating the Community Event
hosted by the Miami Police Victims Advocate Unit

The City of Miami Victims Advocate Unit will be hosting a special event tomorrow, Tuesday, June 11, 2024, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the Miami Police Benevolent Association Hall, located at 2300 N.W. 14 Street.

The purpose of "Advocating the Community" is to provide vital information and knowledge to community members. Through this initiative, the advocacy program aims to foster awareness, support, and empowerment among all residents, particularly those who have been impacted by various forms of victimization. By bringing together local agencies and organizations, we strive to create a collaborative platform where resources and expertise can be shared to better serve our community's needs.

Available resources to include employment resume assistance/job leads, counseling services, health awareness resources, clothing/food distributions, additional referral services, a children's corner, and free meals will be provided during this event to foster a supportive environment.

It's an occasion to come together and demonstrate our commitment to serving the community.
